AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th of May 1800,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Thirtieth Day of October last, prohibiting the Transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, (except as in the said Order is mentioned) will expire this Day: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer: His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, That no Person or Persons whosoever do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months from the Date of this Order, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry, or convey, or lade, or lay on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any Pot-Ash or Pearl-Ash, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto:" But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made; and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled, or delivered up, until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have all been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

2d March 1800.*

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship that His Majesty's Ship under my Command captured this Morning, Le Furet French Brig Privateer of Fourteen Guns and Eighty Men, belonging to Nantes, out Seventeen Days; has only taken the Alert of North Yarmouth, which we have retaken.

I have, &c. &c. &c.

GEORGE COCKBURNE.

Copy of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated in Leghorn Roads, 3d April 1800.

SIR,

I Request that you will lay before their Lordships the enclosed Letters from Captain Austen of His Majesty's Sloop the Petterell to Captain Oliver of His Majesty's Ship Mermaid, and from Captain Oliver to me, reporting the Capture of One French Vessel of War, and the driving on Shore of Two others.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

KEITH.

*Mermaid, Mahon, 25th
March 1800.*

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to enclose your Lordship a Letter from Captain Austen of the Petterell, who, in Company with His Majesty's Ship under my Command, on the Evening of the 21st Instant, captured La Ligurienne French Brig of War of Fourteen Six-Pounders and Two Thirty-Six Pounder Howitzers, and drove away the Cerf Ship Corvette of the same Force, as well as the Joillet Xebecque of Six Six-Pounders and Thirty Men, in the North East Part of the Bay of Marseilles, and not more than Six Miles from that Town, after a well contested Action of more than an Hour and a Half, within point-blank Shot of Two Batteries, and at One Time the Petterell's Stern touched the Rocks where she stopped for a few Minutes; it is impossible for me to express in Terms strong enough, the gallant Conduct of Captain Austen, his Officers, and Ship's Company on this Occasion, in a Contest against so superior a Force; for, having desired Captain Austen the Evening before to keep close in Shore by Way of Deception, (and by which Means the Two Vessels laden with Corn mentioned in Captain Austen's Letter were taken in the Morning,) the Mermaid was so far to Leeward as to be able to afford but little Assistance, until the Brig was completely beaten.

I think La Ligurienne will be found well adapted for His Majesty's Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

R. D. OLIVER.

Right Honourable Lord Keith, K. B.

&c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Petterell at Sea, March 22, 1800.

I Have to inform that the Vessels with which you saw me engaged Yesterday Afternoon, near Cape Couronne, were a Ship, Brig, and Xebecque, belonging to the French Republic; Two of which, the Ship and Xebecque, I drove on Shore, and after a running Action of about One Hour and Half, during which we were not more than a Cable's length from the Shore, and frequently not Half that Distance, the Third struck her Colours. On taking Possession found her to be La Ligurienne French Brig of War, mounting Fourteen Six Pounders and Two Thirty-six Pounder Howitzers, all Brads, commanded by Citizen Francis Auguste Pelabon, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, and had on board at the Commencement of the Action One Hundred and Four Men. Though from the spirited Conduct and Alacrity of Lieutenant Packer, Mr. Thompson the Master, and Mr. Hill the Purser, (who very handsomely volunteered his Services on the Main Deck,) joined to the Gallantry and determined Courage of the Rest of the Officers, Seamen, and Marines of His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, I was happily enabled to bring the Contest to a favorable Issue; yet I could not but feel the Want, and regret the Absence of my First Lieutenant Mr. Glover, the Gunner and Thirty Men, who were at the Time away in Prizes. I have a lively Pleasure in adding that this Service has been performed without a Man hurt on our Part, and with no other Damage to the Ship than Four of our Carronades dismounted, and a few Shots through the Sails.

La Ligurienne is a very fine Vessel of the Kind, well equipped with Stores of all Sorts, in excellent Repair, and not Two Years old; is built on a peculiar Plan, being fastened throughout with Screw Bolts, so as to be taken to Pieces and set up again with ease, and is said to have been intended to follow Buonaparte to Egypt. I learn from the Prisoners that the Ship is called Le Cerf, mounting Fourteen Six Pounders, and the Xebecque Le Joillet, mounting Six Six Pounders, that they had sailed in Company with a Convoy, (Two of which, as per Margin*, I captured in the Forenoon,) that Morning from Cette for Marseilles. I enclose a List of the Killed and Wounded, as far as I have been able to ascertain it.

And am, &c.

F. W. AUSTEN.

R. D. Oliver, Esq. Captain of His Majesty's Ship Mermaid.

* A French Bark, (Name unknown), laden with Wheat, about Three Hundred and Fifty Tons: abandoned by the Crew.

A French Bombarde, (Name unknown), laden with Wheat, about One Hundred and Fifty Tons: left by the Crew.

Return of Killed and Wounded in an Action between His Britannic Majesty's Sloop Petterell, Francis William Austen, Esq. Commander, and the French National Brig La Ligurienne, commanded by Citizen Francis Auguste Pelabon, Lieutenant de Vaisseau.

Petterell.—None killed or wounded.

La Ligurienne.—The Captain and 1 Seaman, killed; 1 Garde Marine and 1 Seaman, wounded.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Dickson, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the North Sea, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated the 7th May, 1800.

SIR,

BE pleased to acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's hired Armed Lugger Lady Ann, commanded by Lieutenant Wright, arrived Yesterday from off Flushing, and brought in with her Les Huit Freres, French Privateer, mounting Fourteen Guns, which she captured on the 4th Instant.

I enclose, for their Lordships' Information, Lieutenant Wright's Letter to me on the Subject, and I beg Leave to recommend his Zeal to their Lordships' Notice. I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

ARCHIBALD DICKSON.

His Majesty's Hired Armed Lugger Lady

SIR, Ann, Yarmouth Road, May 6, 1800.

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that in pursuance of Orders I received from A. Dickson, Esq. Captain of His Majesty's Ship Veteran, I proceeded off Flushing and explored that Anchorage in the Lugger under my Command, and having done so and seeing nothing in the Road, on returning to join the Squadron Yesterday off Goree, I fell in with Les Huit Freres, French Lugger Privateer, mounting Fourteen long Carriage Guns, (Nine of which he hove overboard,) when, after a close Action of One Hour and Thirty-Five Minutes, she struck, close to the Batteries along Shore, West Capel S. S. W. Two Miles. I attribute the long Continuance of the Action to the unfitness of the Guns of the Lugger; however, during that Period, I was very ably seconded by the professional Skill of Mr. David Banks, Master, and by the Bravery of the Crew of the Lady Ann.

It gave me very great Pleasure in making this Capture, and particularly as it was the Means of liberating from Captivity, Fifteen Subjects of His Majesty, who had been captured by that Vessel.

Upon taking Possession of Les Huit Freres, I found her so much shattered, that I was obliged to see her into Port and to get rid of so many Prisoners as well as to repair our own Damages.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

J. WRIGHT.

To Archibald Dickson, Esq. Vice Admiral of the Red.

Admiralty-Office, May 9, 1800.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Wolley, of His Majesty's Ship Arethusa, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated at Sea, 30th April, 1800.

SIR,

I Have to acquaint you, for their Lordships' Information, that on the 1st of this Month, having been driven from off the Bar of Oporto by bad Weather, we fell in with and captured the French Cutter Privateer the General Bernadotte, of Fourteen Guns, and Fifty-seven Men, belonging to Bourdeaux, but from Vigo.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

T. WOLLEY.

Admiralty-Office, May 10, 1800.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, dated on board the Minotaur, off Genoa, April 18, 1800.

I Have the Satisfaction of acquainting you, for the Information of their Lordships, that the Guillaume Tell having attempted to escape from Malta on the Evening of the 29th Ultimo, was intercepted and captured the following Morning by His Majesty's Ships Lion, Foudroyant, and Penelope; but as I have not yet received Captain Dixon's Account of the Particulars of the Action, or of the Loss which has been sustained, I must take another Opportunity of communicating them. I understand, however, that the Enemy was completely dismasted before she struck, and that the Lion and Foudroyant have had killed and wounded about Forty Men each.

Admiralty-Office, May 10, 1800.

LETTERS received this Morning from Lord Keith dated the 21st of April, mention several important Advantages gained by the Austrians in the Vicinity of Genoa, under the Walls of which Place the French have been obliged to concentrate their Force. In many Attacks the Fire of the English Ships was employed with considerable Effect.

The Messenger reports that he saw an English Ship towing a captured Dutch Ship of the Line (with a Frigate or Sloop) into Yarmouth-Roads.

Downing-Street, May 10, 1800.

A Dispatch, of which the following is an Extract, has been received this Morning from the Honorable William Wyndham, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Florence, by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Florence, April 29, 1800.

THE latest News arrived this Morning from the Vicinity of Genoa states, that Massena, having been beat a second Time at Voltri on the 18th Instant, was obliged to take Refuge, with the Remains of his Army, within the Walls of Genoa; and that all the strong Posts and Forts without the City were in the Hands of the Combined Powers, under the Command of General Melas and Admiral Lord Keith.

Whitehall, May 6, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter, of which the following is a Copy, has been received by Sir John E. Heathcote, Knt. of Longton, near Newcastle:

Sir

May 2

Wee do hereby give you notice that if you do not call a Meeting of some Gentlemen and sett those people at Liberty that where sent from Lane End to Stafford you may expect your Life cut short and your habitashe Lade down with the ground likewise Sir Elisha Greasley and Sir Thos Broaton the same so you had better let them know for Wee are determined thay shall not be confined nor no one elf for the same cause witch is only bread and that Wee will fight for to the last drop of our blood the heads of this Nation in general vialans and cause a famine among the poor whilst they themselves live in plenty O Bread Bread Bread is the cry of poor Children and you have suffered the prise to go beyond our reach Wee desire printed Hand Bills to be put out concerning this Letter what you intend to do for we are either for War and Peace.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

Whitehall, May 3, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that divers anonymous threatening Letters have been sent to the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Town of Banbury, in the County of Oxford;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letters, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the said Town to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, May 3, 1800.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that the Corn-Stacks of Messrs. Carline and Linell, and Mr. Samuel Jeffreys, situate near the Town of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, have lately been wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Corporation of Shrewsbury, and the further Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS by the Salop Fire Office, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, May 3, 1800.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Tuesday the 29th Ultimo, a Barn, situate in the Parish of Harlow, in the County of Essex, containing Wheat, Barley, Beans, and Straw, the Property of Mrs. Chaplin, was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set fire to the same,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS (over and above the Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS already offered by the Sun Fire Office,) is hereby offered by the Corps of Yeomanry Cavalry under the Command of Colonel Montagu Burgoyne, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, May 10, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that a Barn situate in the Parish of Trimley St. Martin, in the County of Suffolk, the Property of Solomon Rivers, of Trimley St. Mary, in the said County, containing about Thirty Combs of Wheat, Thirty Combs of Barley, with several Implements of Husbandry, and also a Stable adjoining the same, and a Stack of Straw, was discovered to be on Fire, and that there is every Reason to believe the Premises were maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Premises, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to same), who shall discover his or their Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders by Solomon Rivers.

Admiralty-Office, May 1, 1800.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old-Bailey, London, on Wednesday the 11th Day of June next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

EXCHEQUER BILLS.

Exchequer Bill Office, April 30, 1800.

Charged on Aid and Contribution for the prosecution of the War, &c. Anno 1798, dated the 25th, 26th, and 28th of September, 23d and 27th of October, and 13th of November 1798; and those issued per Act 39 Geo. III. Cap. 6, on the Credit of the Duties on Imports and Exports, &c. for the Service of the Year 1799, dated the 6th, 7th, 9th, 11th, 13th, 15th, and 19th of November 1799.

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have given Directions for paying off the Exchequer Bills, bearing Date the 25th, 26th, and 28th of September, 23d and 27th of October, and 13th of November 1798, issued pursuant to Act 38 Geo. III. Cap. 84, on the Credit of such Monies as should arise by virtue of an Act passed in the 38th Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for granting an Aid or Contribution for the Prosecution of the War, &c. And such of the Exchequer Bills bearing Date the 6th, 7th, 9th, 11th, 13th, 15th, and 19th of November 1799, issued pursuant to Act 39 Geo. III. Cap. 6, for issuing Exchequer Bills to a limited Amount, on the Credit of the Duties on Imports and Exports for the Service of the Year 1799, and that the Principal and Interest of all the said Exchequer Bills shall be paid at the Exchequer Bill Office, in St. Margaret's-Street, Westminster, between the two Palace Yards, on Wednesday the 14th of May 1800, on which Day the Interest on the said Exchequer Bills will cease; and Attendance will be given on Monday the 5th Day of May, and every succeeding Day (Sundays only excepted) until Monday the 12th Day of May inclusive, from Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon till One in the Afternoon, for the Purpose of receiving the same; and for the greater Dispatch, the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring separate Lists of each Description of Bills, containing the Numbers in numerical Order, according to the Value of the said Bills, Times of Commencement of Interest, with the principal Sums and Interest due on such Bills to be computed at 3^d. by the Day on every 100l. from the Time of commencement, to the said 14th Day of May, on which Day the Interest on the said

Exchequer Bills will cease; and they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and endorse their Names on the said Bills.

If the Holders of any of the aforesaid Bills are desirous of receiving Payment of the Principal and Interest, previous to the said 14th Day of May, they may be accommodated, upon their computing the Interest to the Day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said Bills for Examination One Day prior to the Payment. And such Persons as are desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in Part of Payment, upon mentioning the same at the Bottom of their Lists, delivered on or before the said 12th Day of May, may be accommodated with new Exchequer Bills, carrying an Interest of 3^d. by the Day, on every 100l. which said new Exchequer Bills will bear Date the 14th Day of May 1800, and will be delivered at this Office, on Friday the 16th of May 1800, and the following Days.

As several Exchequer Bills which have been advertised to be paid off have not been presented for Payment, the Holders thereof are desired to take Notice, that the Interest on the Exchequer Bills issued on the Credit of the Loan of 1799, and on all Exchequer Bills dated prior to the 26th of April 1799, (except those now advertised), have been ordered to be paid off, and the Interest thereon has ceased.
